

The Santa Fe Opera is offering two classes (similar to the ones Ghost Ranch used to offer) in 2012, July 30-August 3 and August 6-10. Participants will attend four operas in the evening during the week while they spend the days studying and discussing those operas. The classes will be conducted on the Santa Fe Opera campus where students will also be given backstage access and tours.

The Santa Fe Opera program includes lodging downtown Santa Fe, meals, preferred seating at each of four performances, transportation to and from class sessions, and the optional purchase of a fifth opera performance. The price of the program is $1350 for double occupancy lodging or $1150 for a commuter.

To get more information about these classes at the Santa Fe Opera call 505-946-2404 or email aquintanar@santafeopera.org.