About Ghost Ranch in Abiquiu

Given by Arthur and Phoebe Pack to the Presbyterian Church in 1955, this special place was operated as a ranch for years, then as a church conference center. The 21,000 acres that comprise Ghost Ranch were part of a land grant to Pedro Martin Serrano from the King of Spain in 1766. The grant was called Piedra Lumbre (shining rock).

For over fifty years the Church, the staff, the National Ghost Ranch Foundation and many friends and supporters have built the programs, facilities and grounds into a nationally known education and retreat center.

Because of its spectacular scenery, Ghost Ranch has been featured in recent films including All the Pretty Horses and The Missing. The cabin near the entrance to the Ranch is a left-over prop as seen in the return roundup in City Slickers.

ROOMS WITH A VIEW — Definitely Not Your Office

Perfect for your group, up to 50* participants.

Mesa clusters Coyote (24 beds) and Tumbleweed (28 beds) house your group at 7,500 feet in the heart of Georgia O’Keeffe country. Five sleeping suites each have two bedrooms, two baths and a common living area. Each suite shares a common meeting room with a fireplace and a small kitchen.

Groups can choose to:

- ◆ have meals in the ranch dining hall
- ◆ have meals brought to the meeting room
 - ◆ by Ghost Ranch
 - ◆ by their own caterer

Mesa housing, which has the most beautiful views, requires walking up and down a switchback trail to reach the main Ghost Ranch buildings.

*Larger groups can be served in other types of lodging.

O’KEEFFE TOUR

MAKE YOUR EVENT ONE THEY WILL NEVER FORGET

As part of your group stay, include the Georgia O’Keeffe and the Ghost Ranch Landscape Tour. This is a guided tour of the area she loved, explored, painted and lived in for over 50 years at Ghost Ranch in Abiquiu. Hear stories of how she came to New Mexico, how she came to have a house at Ghost Ranch and other entertaining stories of how she engaged with Ghost Ranch staff and guests over the years.

Your group members may join one of our scheduled tours which are held mid-March to mid-November at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, weather permitting or schedule a tour exclusively for your group. The tour is approximately one hour long. $25 per person with advanced reservations required.

While you are here, complement this Ghost Ranch Landscape Tour with a tour of her home in nearby Abiquiu. Our staff can help with scheduling.
