HOUSING DESCRIPTIONS & RATES

WHERE TO STAY AT GHOST RANCH

Ghost Ranch offers rustic, comfortable housing accommodations reflective of its origins as a working ranch. All are within walking distance of classroom buildings, the dining hall and library and other structures via dirt paths and roads. None of our trails, roads, paths or walkways are paved. Expect loose gravel.

All units provide breathtaking vistas of colorful sandstone cliffs, cottonwoods, and distant mountains. After sundown, our expansive skies offer dazzling panoramas of the planets and stars (and in August, the Perseid meteor showers) without pollution of city lights.

Towels, sheets, pillows and blankets are provided. Guest rooms have no clocks, radios, TV or Internet capabilities (Wi-fi is available in the dining hall and library, and our computer lab is open 24 hours a day.) Since we are located at an altitude of 6,500 feet, no housing units have air-conditioning, but they do have screened windows and screen doors.

Main Ranch Level housing is nestled near the base of the multi-hued cliffs and mesas, within walking distance of the dining hall, library, front office, stables, pool, computer lab, campground, convocation hall, chapel and most classrooms.

Mesa Level housing offers the most spectacular views of our cliffs, canyons, mountains and Abiquiu Lake. These units sit up on a mesa (flat top hill) between the library and the campground. Several moderately steep switchback trails lead down to the dining hall and the main Ranch level. Guests can also drive to and from the main Ranch level, however, we prefer to keep traffic to a minimum.

Note: In all housing options, if you do not register with a companion, a roommate may be assigned to you during busy periods on the Ranch. A private room can be guaranteed for an extra $360 per week in addition to the price listed when space is available.

IMPORTANT All housing fees are per person per week (6 nights) and include all meals ($29.50 per day), access to the swimming pool (seasonal), the family center, recreation area, hiking trails, library, computer lab, museums, visitor center, art shows, exhibitions, special lectures and concerts (when scheduled) for the course week.

The first and second person sharing a room will each be charged the fee listed for your housing choice. The third and subsequent persons in that same room pay only for meals for the week.

Adults (ages 11 & older, including non-course guests): $177

Youth (ages 4 through 10): $88.50 No charge for those ages 3 and under.

The most charming housing on the Ranch, these historic adobe units are nestled under leafy cottonwoods in the shady area behind Ghost House. They offer sweeping views of fruit trees, the alfalfa field and Pedernal, our landmark mountain. Most have inviting front porches. Most sleep 2-3 people. Bedrooms have one double bed, or two beds (double + twin, or two twin beds) and a desk, lamp, dresser, mirror and chair. Note: the two rooms above the library are spacious but require climbing stairs. A limited number is available.

Main Ranch Level – Semi-Private Bath $534 per person

These spacious, comfortably appointed rooms sit in the historical sections of Ghost Ranch, close to the dining hall and library. These older units each have a bedroom with 2 beds (a double + twin, or 2 twin beds), a dresser, nightstand with lamp, chair and closet. Every room shares a bath with an adjoining room; the bath is located between the two rooms. In a few select units, two rooms also share a sitting area. Each room sleeps up to 3 people. A limited number is available.

Main Ranch Level – Communal Bath $450 per person

One of Ghost Ranch's most affordable housing options, these rustic guest rooms are located in former ranch bunkhouses, with ample lawns for reading, relaxing or playing Frisbee. Bedrooms can sleep 2-3 people (2 beds: a double + twin, 2 twin beds, or double + bunk bed) or 3-5 people (combination of double + twin + bunk beds.) A few rooms sleep up to 7-8 people and are perfect for groups. Rooms also have a closet, dresser, chair and desk; some have closets and sofas. Large communal bathrooms and showers are located outside, a few steps down a breezeway.

This charming, historic hacienda was built in the 1930s and is the former home of the Director of Ghost Ranch. Anchored under the Puerto de Cielo rock formation two miles from the main Ranch campus, it has a spacious courtyard looking out on the desert and Pedernal, Ghost Ranch's landmark mountain. A small heart-shaped labyrinth is nearby. Casa del Sol hosts Ghost Ranch courses that are spiritual in nature, and its rooms are set aside for participants in such classes (with a "CDS" in the course number.) Casa del Sol has a kitchen and a homey gathering room with a fireplace and small library.

Casa del Sol$534 per person

Six bedrooms share three bathrooms; Most rooms have doors that open onto the courtyard.

Casa del Sol with Bath & Hermitages$774 per person

A seventh bedroom in the main building has a private bath. Ghost Ranch also offers three individual rooms next to Casa del Sol for private retreats. Two have one twin bed; one has a double bed. Each room has a private bath, a microwave oven, a small refrigerator, plates and silverware, and a desk, chair and lounge chair.

CAMPGROUND - Please note: No pets are allowed in the campground.

Our spacious 56-site campground is set on the main Ranch level in a juniper-dotted desert landscape near the base of cliffs and mesas. Most sites have a picnic table and a fire ring (Please note: campfires are prohibited in windy weather, which is common in the spring; during fire season, and all other times designated by the U.S. Forest Service.) Few sites have shade, but nine sites have ramadas (small shade structures made of branches). Juniper trees separate each site to assure privacy.

The campground has three types of campsites: tent sites, electric sites and RV sites with full hook-ups. An RV is defined as any motorized vehicle (van camper, pop-up trailer, motor home, 5th wheel, or truck camper). The total length of the vehicle + any towed trailer (plus any extra vehicles) must be included on the registration form.

Water and a dump station are available throughout the campground, but not necessarily at specific sites. Full hook-up sites include water and a dump station at the site, and 30- and/or 50-amp electric hook-ups. These sites are limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis.

There is one central campground bathhouse. It has an ice machine, refrigerator, showers, flush toilets, sinks, microwave, sink for dishwashing, ironing board and coin-operated laundry.

The campground is a 15-20 minute walk to the dining hall and meeting rooms.

On arrival day, campers who are registered for a Ghost Ranch course should check in first at the Front Desk and then with the campground host. Note: When you register for a class, you are guaranteed a campsite, but campsites are not pre-assigned. Specific sites may not be reserved in advance. The campground is rarely full.

Rates are for the full course week (6 nights):

Tent sites with no electricity: $114

Tent/RV site with electricity only: $132

RV site with full hook-ups: $175
