Welcome to The Bluegrass Camp at Ghost Ranch!

Your instructors are really looking forward to meeting and playing with you.

Instrument Class Selection:

We need to know your instrument choice so we can place you in the right class! Let us know your first and second choices (if you are bringing two instruments).

- Here are your options:
- Bluegrass Fiddle with Ryan Drickey
- Bluegrass Mandolin with Matt Flinner
- Bluegrass Banjo with Aaron Youngberg
- Bluegrass Guitar with Gregg Daigle
- Bluegrass Bass with Erin Youngberg
- Bluegrass Songwriting with Mike Finders

How to respond: Please reply to this email with your instrument preferences:

What to Pack:

Pack for the desert—April can be unpredictable! Here's a helpful list:

- Clothing: Layers for variable weather (it might be cold, hot, rainy, or sunny).
- Accessories: A hat, sunscreen, rain jacket, and sturdy shoes.
- Music Gear: Your instrument(s), an extra set of strings, and a music stand (optional).
- Writing Tools: A notebook or paper and a pen or pencil.
- Personal Comfort Items: Folding chair for jam sessions, flashlight for evenings, and a refillable water bottle.

It's camp—remember camp? Be flexible and go with the flow! We'll help you if you're struggling. Don't be nervous—our mission is to have fun and help everyone else have fun too. The more relaxed we can be, the more we'll create an environment full of trust, learning, and laughter.

Orientation

After dinner on Wednesday, April 2, join us at 7 PM in Agape Worship Hall, located across from the cafeteria. Be sure to arrive a little early to meet your fellow campers and get settled in. Bluegrass orientation will follow immediately after.

Feel free to reach out with any other questions about camp. For housing and meal questions, please contact Ghost Ranch directly.

We can't wait to see you all!

Your instructors, guides, mentors, and all-around nice people,

Mike, Matt, Ryan, Erin, Aaron, and Gregg
