Hello Friends,

Welcome to Color & Composition. I'm excited to paint with you! In this workshop we will focus on fundamental drawing and painting techniques, color theory, and compositional strategies to enhance your unique vision of the New Mexican landscape. I'll guide you through a series of demonstrations and step-by-step exercises. We will work both in the studio, and outside en plein air. Beginners will gain valuable knowledge and experience, while advanced painters will deepen their understanding of light and space.

Please reach out with any questions you may have.
