It is not a country of light on things. It is a country of things in light.

- Georgia O'Keeffe

Find joy in the iconic scenery.

Georgia O'Keeffe, who owned property within the ranch, and countless other artists bring it to life on canvas and on film.

Walk its paths.

Bask in the glow of morning or evening, drinking in the peace the ranch instills.

Stay with us.

Leave the world behind and soak in all Ghost Ranch has to offer.

A SPECIAL PLACE

It's said all the time, Ghost Ranch is a life changing place. Generations of visitors know Ghost Ranch as a space where you can...

CONNECT WITH THE LAND

Ghost Ranch encompasses 21,000 acres of towering rock walls and vivid colors, geology with great historic, cultural and scientific value.

FIND A SPIRITUAL HOME

Through week-long retreats—where communities are forged and values are strengthened—the ranch honors its faith-based roots.

DISCOVER NEW SKILLS

With 150 classes and workshops, guests explore art, music, writing, southwest culture, archaeology, paleontology, and more.

MADE POSSIBLE BY YOU

Your support keeps the unique spirit of Ghost Ranch alive and burning bright. When you give to the National Ghost Ranch Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, you sustain and enrich the values that make the ranch a place like no other.

YOUR GENEROSITY

- Extends hospitality to all, through community outreach and programming.
- Enriches workshops, courses, and retreats.
- Stewards the ranch's physical spaces by contributing to ongoing facility enhancement.
- Preserves the surrounding natural environment through sustainable measures.
- Ensures a long and bright future by strengthening the ranch's operations.

We are grateful for those who love and support Ghost Ranch. Your generosity brings life and energy to this special place.

Inspiration. Art.
Adventure. Connection.
Respite. History.
