

Welcome

High Desert Watercolor

with Sean Hudson

Hello Friends,

Welcome to High Desert Watercolor! I'm excited to guide you in creating your own unique vision of the enchanted New Mexico landscape. Over the course of three days, we'll explore color theory, composition, perspective, and personal style in both studio and en plein air painting sessions. This is an action-packed weekend with a quick intro and color study on Friday, a full day of painting on Saturday, and a final session on Sunday morning to wrap up your inspiring weekend. Whether you're a beginner or advanced painter, you'll gain valuable insights and expand your artistic sensibilities.

Feel free to reach out with questions - sean@magicskywatercolor.com

See you soon,
Sean
