with Delbert Anderson

May 1-4, 2026

Ya'at'teeh (hello),

My name is Delbert Anderson and I'm super excited to meet each and everyone of you. During our weekend together we will establish a long lasting friendship on the grounds of the beautiful Ghost Ranch!

I was born on the Navajo Nation in Shiprock, NM and currently live in Kirtland, New Mexico. I have a wife and five children. My oldest is eighteen and is at the University of Denver and my youngest is five years old and still sucks on her thumb. Over my life I've experienced many situations as a young father and creating a music career out of scratch. Through many tough times I had to rely on the words of my elders and learn how to operate in a colonial system. Navigating the world was the hardest, but after many mentors and deepening my understanding of many things, I was able to live a full life and travel to many beautiful places and experience many cultures.

Our weekend together consists of workshops, performances, meals and great hangs! Please feel free to fully express yourselves and always ask questions. I hope to catch everyone on our off times and have many conversations.
