

Drawing from Nature & Culture: Stones, Bones, Pods & Pots

G26010201

with Helen Byers

January 11-24, 2026

Welcome, everyone!

Thank you for registering for this course. What follows is some basic information.

Check-in will begin Sunday, January 11, at 3pm at the Welcome Center.

There you will receive your room assignment and door code, a map, and more info.

After dinner (5:30-6:30pm in the Dining Hall), there will be an orientation session. Afterwards, I will greet you and share details of our course, including the location of our classroom.

This will be our daily Schedule:

- On Monday, January 12, instruction will begin at 9:00am and go until noon.
- After lunch (12-1:30pm), those who wish may continue to work. (I'll be around!)
- Evenings will be free time; some nights will include optional activities.
- Weekends will offer free time to use as you please (perhaps a visit to local sites such as Ojo Caliente Hot Springs, or Santa Fe...?).
- Check-out time will be Saturday, January 24, at 10am.

Please order the supplies on the Materials List, and email me if you have a question about something on the list.

Also, remember to bring these Ghost Ranch essentials:

- water bottle
- sun hat & a warm one
- clothing layers (dry, warm, cold) (Note: It can be cold, esp. at night.)

GHOST RANCH

- sturdy shoes or boots for walking or hiking on uneven ground
- sunglasses
- sunscreen
- flashlight or headlamp
- small day pack
- cell phone &/or camera

It's going to be an unforgettable time, and I look forward to sharing it with you!

Helen

helizabymers@gmail.com