

Acoustic Folk Guitar Camp G26100112

with Gragg Daigle & Mike Finders
October 8 – 11, 2026

Welcome to Folk Guitar at Ghost Ranch!

We're excited to spend the week making music together in this beautiful and inspiring place. This camp is about more than learning songs or guitar parts; it is about listening, arranging, supporting one another, and discovering how every player can contribute to the music.

Throughout the week, we'll work with folk songs as living material. We'll explore rhythm, chord choices, bass motion, simple fills, introductions, endings, dynamics, and ensemble roles. Just as importantly, we'll practice making space for different skill levels, voices, and musical instincts.

Please come ready to play, listen, experiment, and participate. You do not need to have everything figured out before you arrive. Bring your guitar, your questions, your curiosity, and your willingness to be part of the group.

We're looking forward to a great week of music with you.
